* Note: Hiring Rates will be based on availability of funds, the applicant's qualifications and other relevant factors

JOB DUTIES:

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SPECIALIST II: This is an advanced trainee level. Work is designed to train incumbents for the VRS III level. Tasks assigned are similar to those of the VRS III (described below), but assignments are structured and performed with close supervision.

The incumbent is expected to enroll into a CORE accredited graduate program in rehabilitation counseling upon completion of their initial probationary period. The incumbent must graduate and receive their master's degree in rehabilitation counseling within three semesters of enrollment.

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SPECIALIST III: Performs evaluation, vocational counseling and allied rehabilitation services for the full range of cases; provides and/or arranges for testing, medical treatment, training, job placement and adjustment; and performs other related duties as assigned.

VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION SPECIALIST IV: Supervises and participates in vocational rehabilitation and allied services of an operating unit; independently performs all vocational counseling, evaluation and rehabilitation services for individuals representing the most difficult and complex cases; provides all vocational rehabilitation services alone at a field station; or serves as a program specialist; certifies and regulates those who provide direct vocational rehabilitation services to industrially injured employees; and performs other related duties as assigned.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: Applicants for positions who perform, or are authorized to perform, direct counseling services as specified in the State Plan for Vocational Rehabilitation Services must the meet the following requirements:

VRS II:

Successful completion of one year of graduate level credits in a rehabilitation counseling program accredited by the Council on Rehabilitation Education (CORE).

VRS III:

Applicants for VRS III and higher levels must meet one of the following:

- possess a Master's degree in rehabilitation counseling accredited by the Council on Rehabilitation Education (CORE); or
- 2. current certification as a Certified Rehabilitation Counselor (CRC); or
- CRC eligible (meet all graduate level education, internship and experience requirements to be acceptable for certification as a CRC).

VRS IV: In addition to the preceding requirements for the VRS III level, applicants must possess one year of professional experience in one or a combination of the following:

- 1. Vocational rehabilitation training as a regularly designated responsibility;
- Vocational guidance and teaching work in a recognized vocational rehabilitation program or in a school for persons with disabilities:
- Developmental work in programs of vocational rehabilitation located in an educational institution, government, business, or industry;
- Personnel placement or employment placement experience which has provided extensive knowledge of training and rehabilitation requirements necessary to place persons with disabilities in one or more broad occupational areas; and
- Vocational rehabilitation counseling experience involving the adjustment, training and placement of persons with disabilities into gainful employment.

SUBSTITUTION ALLOWED:

Applicants who possess a master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling not accredited by CORE, but which included successful completion of 600 hours of practicum and/or internship in rehabilitation counseling meet the requirements for VRS II.

Qualifying experience must have demonstrated the ability to provide the full range of direct service activities under general supervision. Such experience must have demonstrated the ability to independently develop training programs for persons with disabilities, to assist them in adjusting to training or work situations and demonstrated successful contacts with management for the placement of disabled persons.

HOW TO APPLY:

- 1. Applications are available at the Department of Human Services (DHS) Personnel Office or at http://humanservices.hawaii.gov/employment-opportunities/ and the State Recruiting Office.
- Complete and return all forms to the Department of Human Services Personnel Office, 1390 Miller Street, Room 202, Honolulu, Hawaii 96813. Your application may be rejected if the required documentation as identified below is not submitted at the time of application. A legible photocopy of your application with current information and an original signature will be accepted.

REQUIRED FORMS/DOCUMENTATION:

You must submit the following forms/documentation together with your application or your application may be rejected:

- Evidence of the appropriate training (e.g. transcripts or diploma) to be given credit for education. A photocopy will be accepted; however, DHS reserves the right to request for an official copy.
- 2. The Supplemental Experience Statement for Vocational Rehabilitation Specialist II, III, and IV.

NOTIFICATION TO APPLICANTS:

The Department of Human Services will use electronic mail (email) or notify applicants in writing of important information relating to the status and processing of your application as a part of our ongoing efforts to increase operational efficiency, promote the conservation of green resources, and minimize delays and costs.

Please ensure that the email address and contact information you provide is current, secure, and readily accessible to you. We will not be responsible in any way if you do not receive or check your email-box in a timely manner.

TESTING INFORMATION:

The examination for this recruitment will be conducted on an unassembled basis, where the examination score is based on an evaluation and rating of your education and experience. It is, therefore, important that your employment application provide a clear and detailed description of the duties and responsibilities of each position you held.

In-person interviews and/or further testing in Hawaii may be required at the discretion of the hiring agency. If in-person interviews and/or further testing is a requirement, applicants who meet the minimum qualification requirements and are referred to the vacancy must be available to participate in person and at their own expense in this required phase of the selection process.

Applicants are encouraged to submit their application as soon as possible. In addition to employment availability and score, the referral of qualified applicants may be based upon other factors including date of receipt of the application.

QUALITY OF EXPERIENCE: Your possession of the required amount of experience will not in itself be accepted as proof of qualification for the position. Overall paid or unpaid experience must be of such scope and responsibility as to conclusively demonstrate that you have the ability to perform the duties of the position. Provide a detailed description of your duties and responsibilities. If you worked on a part-time basis, indicate the average number of hours you worked per week.

NOTE: The Department of Human Services will not withhold the referral of names of eligibles for employment consideration because of your failure to provide accurate and complete information concerning your qualifications.

HOW TO FILE: Applications should be submitted in person or by mail to:

Department of Human Services
1390 Miller Street, Room 202
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

WHEN TO FILE: File applications immediately. Mailed applications and supplemental materials should be postmarked by midnight of the last day to file applications. For positions indicating Continuous Recruitment Until Needs Are Met, the last day to file applications will be posted in the Personnel Office at the address listed above.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR STATE OF HAWAII CIVIL SERVICE EMPLOYMENT

State of Hawaii Department of Human Services
Personnel Office – 1390 Miller Street, Room 202 – Honolulu, HI 96813

The information you provide will be used to determine whether you meet public employment requirements and the minimum qualification requirements in the Class Specifications. As required by Federal and/or State laws, we do not discriminate on the basis of age, sex (including gender identity or expression), religion, race, color, ancestry, national origin, disability, marital status, veteran's status, sexual orientation, arrest or court record, citizenship, genetic information or any other protected characteristics. The State of Hawaii is an equal opportunity employer and complies with applicable State and Federal laws relating to employment practices.

MERIT CIVIL SERVICE SYSTEM: The employment of persons in the civil service, as defined by State law, is governed by the merit principle. Applicants must meet the minimum qualification requirements of the position being sought, including all education, experience, licensure, certification, security clearances, and other public employment requirements for State Civil Service employment. It is the applicant's responsibility to provide complete information. The information submitted may be verified. Applicants must meet the requirements and qualify on appropriate employment related tests to be eligible for employment consideration.

LEGAL AUTHORIZATION TO WORK REQUIREMENT: The State of Hawaii requires all persons seeking employment with the government of the State shall be citizens, nationals, or permanent resident aliens of the United States, or eligible under federal law for unrestricted employment in the United States.

HAWAII STATE RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT: Effective July 1, 2007, persons who are non-residents of the State of Hawaii will have thirty (30) days from the date they begin their State employment to become Hawaii residents. While an employee of the State of Hawaii, they must maintain their Hawaii residency.

CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD CHECK: Individuals who are recommended for hire are required to undergo a criminal history record clearance and other checks, as applicable.

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICE'S LEVELS OF REVIEW: Applicants will be notified of their status in writing. Applicants who do not agree with a decision or action taken by the Department of Human Services shall have two successive levels of review. Each review must be concluded before an applicant may request the next higher review. Note that each review is addressed to a specific office.

- 1. INTERNAL COMPLAINT. This is the first level of review. An applicant who does not agree with an action taken on your application, may file an Internal Complaint with the Department of Human Services. This must be done by submitting the Department of Human Services Internal Complaint Form, DHS9005 to the Department of Human Services, Personnel Office within (7) working days after the date of the notice. A review will not be conducted if you do not file your complaint within the seven (7) working day limit.
- 2. APPEAL TO THE MERIT APPEALS BOARD. An appeal to the Merit Appeals Board is the second level of review. An applicant who does not agree with an action resulting from the Internal Complaint with the Department of Human Services may then file an appeal to the Merit Appeals Board. Further information and details regarding procedures, required forms, and the mailing address to file an appeal are available at http://hawaii.gov/hrd/main/ecd/mab. If the applicant does not agree with the internal complaint decision rendered by the Department of Human Services, it may be appealed in writing to the State Merit Appeals Board within twenty (20) days from the date of the action on the internal complaint. An internal complaint must have been completed by the Department of Human Services before an appeal may be requested.

If you have questions, please contact our office during business hours at (808) 586-4969 for further information.
