[Eff 09/30/13]

§§17-1720-15 to 17-1720-17 (Reserved).

SUBCHAPTER 5
HOME AND COMMUNITY BASED SERVICES

§17-1720-18 Home and Community Based Services (HCBS). (a) The participating health plan is not required to provide HCBS to an enrolled individual if:
(1) The individual chooses institutional services;
(2) The individual cannot be served safely in the community;
(3) There are no adequate or appropriate providers for needed services; or
(4) The cost of providing services in the home or community setting is expected to exceed the cost of providing care in an institution.

(b) The health plan must receive prior approval from the department or its designee prior to disapproving a request for HCBS.

(c) An individual must meet one of the following level of care criteria to receive home and community based services:

   (1) At risk of deteriorating to institutional level of care; or
   (2) At institutional level of care.

(d) The health plan shall provide the following benefits which minimally include, but are not limited to, the following for an individual described in paragraph (c)(1):

   (1) Adult day care services;
   (2) Adult day health services;
   (3) Home delivered meals;
   (4) Personal emergency response system; and
   (5) Skilled nursing services.

(e) The health plan shall provide the following benefits which minimally include, but are not limited to, the following and may require prior authorization for an individual described in paragraph (c)(2):

   (1) Adult day care services provided by a licensed facility maintained and operated by an individual, organization, or agency for the purpose of providing regular supportive care to four or more disabled adult participants, with or without charging a fee. Adult day care services include therapeutic, social, educational, recreational, and other activities. Adult day care staff members may not perform healthcare related services such as medication administration, tube feedings, and other activities which require healthcare related training;

   (2) Adult day health services provided by an organized program of therapeutic, social and health activities and services provided to enrollees with functional impairments, for the purpose of restoring or maintaining the individual's optimal capacity for self-care. Adult day health facilities are licensed in accordance with chapter 11-96 and subchapter 2 of chapter 11-94.1;

(3) Home delivered meals that are nutritionally sound and delivered to a location where an individual resides (excluding residential or institutional settings). The meals will not replace or substitute for a full day's nutritional regimen (i.e., no more than two meals per day). Home delivered meals are provided to an individual who cannot prepare nutritionally sound meals without assistance and are determined, through an assessment, to require the service in order to remain independent in the community and to prevent institutionalization;

(4) Personal emergency response system that is an electronic system placed in homes of high risk enrollees who live alone or are alone significant parts of the day, have no regular caregiver for extended periods of time, and who would otherwise require extensive routine supervision, to enable them to secure immediate help in the event of a physical, emotional, or environmental emergency; and

(5) Skilled nursing services.

(f) The health plan shall provide the following benefits which minimally include, but are not limited to, the following for an individual described in paragraph (c)(2):

(1) The benefits included in section (d);

(2) Assisted living services that include personal care and supportive care services (such as homemaker services, chore services, attendant services, meal preparation) that are furnished to enrollees who reside in an assisted living facility. Payment for room and board is prohibited;

(3) Community care foster family home services provided in a home that is certified by the department to provide, for a fee, twenty-four hour living accommodations, including personal care, supportive services (such as homemaker services, chore services and attendant care and companion services) and medication oversight (to the extent permitted under State law). Services shall be provided in a certified private home by a principal care provider who lives in the home for not more than three adults at any one time, at least two of whom shall be Medicaid recipients, and all of whom are at nursing facility level of care, are unrelated to the foster family, and are being monitored in the home by a licensed community case management agency. It does not include expanded adult residential care homes and assisted living facilities, which shall continue to be licensed by the department of health;

(4) Counseling and training services that involve counseling for the enrollee, family or caregiver, and professional and paraprofessional caregivers to provide the necessary support to build and enhance coping skills, as well as training that may include, but not limited to, enrollee care training for enrollees, family and caregivers regarding the nature of the disease and the disease process; methods of transmission and infection control measures; biological, psychological care and special treatment needs-regimens; employer training for consumer directed services; instruction about the treatment regimens; use of equipment specified in the service plan; employer skills updates as necessary to safely maintain the individual at home;
crisis intervention; supportive counseling; family therapy; suicide risk assessments and intervention; death and dying counseling; anticipatory grief counseling; substance abuse counseling; and nutritional assessment and counseling;

(5) Community Care Management Agency (CCMA) services are provided to enrollees living in Community Care Foster Family Homes and other community settings, as required. The following activities are provided by a CCMA: continuous and ongoing nurse delegation to the caregiver in accordance with subchapter 15 of chapter 16-89; initial and ongoing assessments to make recommendations to health plans for, at a minimum, indicated services, supplies, and equipment needs of enrollees; ongoing face-to-face monitoring and implementation of the enrollee's care plan; and interaction with the caregiver on adverse effects and changes in condition of enrollees, or both. CCMAs shall: communicate with an enrollee's physician(s) regarding the enrollee's needs including changes in medication and treatment orders; work with families regarding service needs of enrollee and serve as an advocate for their enrollees; and be accessible to the enrollee's caregiver twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week.

(6) Environmental accessibility adaptations that changes to the enrollee’s living environment, but not including community care foster family homes and expanded adult residential care homes (E-ARCH), to promote safety or facilitate the enrollee's self-reliance by enabling the enrollee to perform basic activities of daily living. Modifications may include installation of ramps and handrails, widening of doorways, removal of other architectural barriers, bathroom modifications, electrical, plumbing or air conditioners and modifications to the telephone system which enable the individual to function with greater independence in the home, and without which the enrollee would require institutionalization. Window air conditioners may be installed when it is necessary for the health and safety of the enrollee. Excluded are those adaptations or improvements to the home that are of general utility, and are not of direct medical or remedial benefits to the enrollee, such as carpeting, roof repair, central air conditioning, etc. Adaptations which add to the total square footage of the home are excluded from these benefits. All services shall be provided in accordance with applicable State or local building codes;

(7) Home maintenance that is a service necessary to maintain a safe, clean and sanitary environment. Home maintenance services are those services not included as a part of personal assistance and include heavy duty cleaning, which is utilized only to bring a home up to acceptable standards of cleanliness at the inception of service to an enrollee, minor repairs to essential appliances limited to stoves, refrigerators, and water heaters, and fumigation or extermination services. Home maintenance is provided to an individual who cannot perform cleaning and minor repairs without assistance and are determined, through an assessment, to require the service in order to prevent institutionalization;

(8) Moving assistance that is provided in rare instances when it is determined through an assessment that an individual needs to relocate to a new home. The following are the circumstances under which moving assistance can be provided to an enrollee: unsafe home due to deterioration; the individual is wheel-chair bound living in a building with no elevator; multi-story building with no elevator, where the enrollee lives above the first floor; enrollee is evicted from their current living environment; or the enrollee is no longer able to afford the home due to a rent increase. Moving expenses include packing and moving of belongings. Whenever possible, family, landlord, community and third party resources who can provide this service without charge will be utilized;

(9) Non-medical transportation that is the necessary transportation provided to and from facilities, resources, and appointments in order for the enrollee to receive the services included in the plan of care;

(10) Personal assistance services that assist with activities of daily living such as ambulation, mobility, transfer and lifting, positioning and turning, bowel and bladder care, toileting, bathing, dressing, grooming, feeding, exercise and range of motion, and assisting with medications which are normally self-administered; and instrumental activities of daily living which are directly related to the wellbeing of the enrollee, such as meal preparation, bed, kitchen and bathroom cleanliness, essential errands, and maintenance of health records;

(11) Residential care services are personal care services, homemaker, chore, attendant care and companion services, and medication oversight (to the extent permitted by law) provided in a licensed private home by a principle care provider who lives in the home. Residential care is furnished in a:

(A) Type I Expanded Adult Residential Care Home (EARCH), allowing not more than five residents provided that up to six residents may be allowed at the discretion of the department to live in a Type I home with not more than two of whom may be NF LOC; or

(B) Type II EARCh, allowing six or more residents, no more than twenty percent of the home's licensed capacity may be individuals meeting a NF LOC who receive these services in conjunction with residing in the home;

(12) Respite care services;

(13) Specialized case management; and

(14) Specialized medical equipment and supplies, including the purchase, rental, lease, warranty costs, installation, repairs and removal of devices, controls, or appliances, specified in a plan of care, that enable an individual to increase or maintain their abilities to perform activities of daily living, or to perceive, control, participate in, or communicate with the environment in which they live. [Eff 09/30/13] (Auth: HRS §346-14; 42 C.F.R. §430.25) (Imp: HRS §346-14; 42 C.F.R. §430.25)

§§17-1720-19 to 17-1720-21 (Reserved).

SUBCHAPTER 6
INSTITUTIONAL CARE SERVICES

§17-1720-22 Institutional care services. (a) Institutional care services are provided in a licensed nursing facility to an enrolled individual who is referred by a physician.

(b) Institutional care services shall be provided either directly by or under the general supervision of a licensed practical nurse or registered professional nurse.

(c) Institutional care services shall be the following benefits which minimally include, but are not limited to:
(1) Activities of the individual’s choice (including religious activities) that are designed to provide normal pursuits for physical and psychosocial well-being;
(2) Administration of medication and treatment;
(3) Basic nursing and treatment supplies, such as soap, skin lotion, alcohol, powder, applicators, tongue depressors, cotton ball, gauzes, adhesive tape, bandages, incontinent pads, V-pads, thermometers, blood pressure apparatus, plastic or rubber sheets, enema equipment, and douche equipment;
(4) Development, management, and evaluation of the written resident care plan based on physician orders that necessitate the involvement of skilled technical or professional personnel to meet the individual’s care needs, promote recovery, and ensure the individual’s health and safety;
(5) Durable medical equipment and supplies used by residents but which are reusable;
(6) Health education services provided by skilled technical or professional personnel to teach the individual self care, such as gait training and self administration of medications;
(7) Laundry service for items of individual’s washable personal clothing;
(8) Nonrestorative or nonrehabilitative therapy, or both, provided by nursing staff;
(9) Observation and assessment of the individual’s unstable condition that requires the skills and knowledge of skilled technical or professional personnel to identify and evaluate the individual’s need for possible medical intervention, modification of treatment, or both, to stabilize the individual's condition;
(10) A review of the drug regimen of each individual at least once a month by a licensed pharmacist, as required for a nursing facility to participate in Medicaid;
(11) Therapeutic diet and dietary supplements as ordered by the attending physician;
(12) Social services provided by qualified personnel;
(13) Room and board;
(14) Provision of and payment for, through contractual agreements with appropriate skilled technical or professional personnel, other medical and remedial services ordered by the attending physician which are not regularly provided by the provider. Other services that may be needed, such as transportation to realize the provision of services ordered by the attending physician, shall also be arranged through contractual agreements. The contractual agreement shall stipulate the responsibilities, functions, objectives, service fee, and other terms agreed to by the NF and the person or entity that contracts to provide the service;

(15) Feeding assistance performed by a feeding assistant, nurse aide, or nurse. The feeding assistant must work under the supervision of a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse that is licensed to practice in Hawaii. [Eff 09/30/13] (Auth: HRS §346-14; Pub. L.
