	Subject ACCESS POLICY LANGUAGE, FACILITIES AND EMPLOYMENT ACCESS TO SUPPORT HUMAN SERVICES	OPR PERSONNEL OFFICE
		Issue/Revision Date OCT 1 2014

INTRODUCTION

The Department of Human Services (DHS) will strive to provide meaningful access to employment, in the provision of programs, services, activities, and to DHS occupied, state-owned and leased facilities.

This policy has legal authority pursuant to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Titles I and II of the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990. Applicable Hawaii Revised Statutes, including but not limited to, Chapters 371 and 378, as amended, as well as others as added or amended, periodically provide legal authority by the State of Hawaii.

State and Federally-funded programs must be planned and administered such that they do not have the effect of denying or delaying services, facilities access, or employment, to any particular person or groups of persons, who are protected by law.

1.0 PURPOSE(S)

The primary purposes of this policy are to reduce barriers and improve availability of and access to human services at the DHS by providing and maintaining reasonable and meaningful language, facilities and employment access to support human services.

2.0 REFERENCES, ACRONYMS AND DEFINITIONS

SEE APPENDIX A.

3.0 POLICY

It is the policy of the DHS that all individuals shall be provided equal access to programs, services, activities, facilities and employment in all DHS functions. The goal of this policy is to remove and prevent any barriers to equal access.

DHS P&PM	Subject ACCESS POLICY LANGUAGE, FACILITIES AND EMPLOYMENT ACCESS TO SUPPORT HUMAN SERVICES	Number 4.10.4	Page 2 of 4

4.0 SCOPE

This policy applies to all DHS organizational divisions, administratively attached agencies, commissions, individuals, and organizations that receive State and/or Federal funds through contracts or other arrangements with the DHS.

5.0 RESPONSIBILITIES

Administrative Appeals Office is responsible for developing, implementing and evaluating administrative hearing procedures and processes in provision of DHS services.

Civil Rights Compliance Staff/Personnel Office is responsible for developing and coordinating DHS' Language Access, Self-Evaluation, and Affirmative Action Plans. Serves as liaison between Federal and State agencies and other stakeholders, such as advocacy groups and/or potential applicants; provides technical assistance to divisions, administratively attached agencies, and commissions; responds to inquiries from Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Hawaii Civil Rights Commission, and others. Performs other duties relative to civil rights compliance in programs, services, activities, facilities and employment, such as reporting, training and development. The Civil Rights Staff shares responsibility with divisions, agencies and commissions for DHS policies and procedures, compliance reporting, training, and the development of tools, notices/documents, processes and training modules relating to civil rights compliance. This office may share with divisions the responsibility for developing private/public partnerships for facilities access.

DHS Director is responsible for leading and monitoring the implementation and prevention of barriers to language, facilities and employment access at the DHS. The Director may delegate any portion to a deputy director, staff officers and/or division administrators.

All DHS Employees are responsible for complying with Federal and State laws, relating to civil rights, including and not limited to, treating all individuals equally and courteously, and informing persons of their right to equal access to programs, facilities and employment. Employees must inform clients and applicants for services of their right to free interpreter service, auxiliary aids as qualified, and a right to file a discrimination complaint when they feel their civil rights have been violated and/or an internal complaint when they feel they have been treated unfairly. Employees are responsible for notifying clients of their right to an administrative hearing when there has been an adverse action such as a denial of benefits.

		Issue/Revision Date OCT 1 2014

DHS Organizational Division Administrators and Staff Officers are responsible for determining the needs of the population they serve, considering language, culture, and physical accessibility to facilities and employment that are consistent with those needs in compliance with Federal and State laws. Other responsibilities include, but are not limited to: (1) distributing to appropriate staff members policies and procedures regarding access, a desk guide, required notices, and a list of available language and other services, (2) consulting with the CRCS on the development and implementation of staff training, (3) collecting and analyzing internal and external data, (4) notifying and monitoring sub-recipients for compliance with Federal and State laws and assurances, and (5) performing other duties as identified in DHS policies and procedures including seeking external funding and partnerships as needed and appropriate in coordination with the CRCS.

Sub-Recipients are responsible for complying with civil rights, and other Federal and State laws and assurances, including and not limited to, informing clients and potential clients of their right to free interpreter service, auxiliary aids as qualified, and the right to file a discrimination complaint when they feel their civil rights have been violated or an interpreter has not been provided.

Contractors and Sub-Contractors are responsible for providing reasonable, meaningful access to their services and for posting required notices, including assurances.

Supervisors are responsible for ensuring that their staffs are aware of their responsibility to treat all clients and applicants equally and fairly, and to provide assistance to persons with special needs. Supervisors shall also ensure that clients, applicants, recipients, and employees are informed of their right to nondiscriminatory services and employment, reasonable accommodations as justified, and right to file a discrimination complaint and/or request an administrative hearing. Supervisors are responsible for assuring that their staffs are adequately trained, and for monitoring, posting, and updating required notices. Supervisors will also make reasonable accommodations, to the extent required by law, for employees who are disabled, pregnant (including pregnancy-related disabilities), breastfeeding, victims of sexual or domestic abuse, or for bona fide religious purposes. Any employee who believes he/she qualifies for a reasonable accommodation should contact his/her manager and complete a Request for Reasonable Accommodation for Employees (APPENDIX B). Any client or applicant for services who believes he/she qualifies for an auxiliary aid should contact his/her case worker or his/her r team supervisor and complete a Request for Auxiliary Aid (APPENDIX C).

7.0 PROCEDURES

7.1 LANGUAGE ACCESS

The Department of Human Services (DHS) recognizes that Limited English Proficient (LEP) individuals need language assistance services to access and fully participate in programs and services as well as employment and other activities. DHS is, therefore, committed to providing competent language assistance at no cost and in a timely manner to LEP individuals. This includes ensuring effective communication between DHS staff members and/or sub-recipients and LEP individuals. Procedures and processes will be developed by the Department. Divisions, administratively attached agencies, commissions, and sub-recipients will assist the Civil Rights Compliance Staff (CRCS) by taking the following steps:

- (1) Assessing and determining linguistic needs of population served.
- (2) Providing timely and competent language assistance.
 - a. Providing language assistance resources, such as "I Speak" materials.
 - b. Determining language need of each LEP individual.
 - c. Notifying LEP individuals of availability of free language assistance.
 - d. Requesting an American Sign Language (ASL) interpreter.
 - e. Requesting oral language interpreters.
 - f. Translating written documents as required by law or DHS contract.
- (3) Distributing and complying with interpreter standards set by funding agencies.
- (4) Using family, friends, and other volunteer interpreters when qualified and appropriate only. No one under the age of 18 is allowed to provide interpreter services or translate documents.

DHS P&PM	Subject ACCESS PROCEDURES LANGUAGE, FACILITIES AND EMPLOYMENT ACCESS TO SUPPORT HUMAN SERVICES	Number 4.10.4	Page 2 of 4
		Issue/Revision Date OCT 1 2014

The Department has taken the following steps:

- (1) Developed a reporting system designed to obtain key information about the LEP population who use DHS services or have the potential for doing so.
- (2) Compiled comprehensive listing of bilingual/multilingual DHS employees.
- (3) Sent notices of available interpretation/translation services to LEP individuals.
- (4) Provided interpretation/translation services for qualified LEP individuals.
- (5) Designated an LEP Coordinator and Access Task Force to include representatives from divisions, administratively attached agencies and commissions. The ADA Coordinator and CRC Officer chair the Access Task Force.
- (6) Trained DHS staff in Language Access.
- (7) Sought stakeholders' input in review and revision of its DHS Language Access Plan and other language matters.

Procedures and processes are delineated in DHS' Language Access Plan, and include input from DHS' Access Task Force which is composed of a representative from all divisions, and administratively attached agencies or commissions, is chaired by CRCS or the ADA Coordinator.

7.2 FACILITIES ACCESS

Non-discrimination

No qualified individual with a disability is excluded from participation, denied the benefit of, or is otherwise subjected to discrimination by any program, service or activity (including and not limited to employment and facilities use) of the DHS on the basis of a disability (physical or mental).

Self-Evaluation

State and local governments are required to conduct self-evaluations of services, policies and practices in accordance with Title II of the American with Disabilities Act (ADA), 42 U.S.C. Section 12101. The purpose of self-evaluation is to determine whether DHS services, policies, and practices are in compliance with Title II.

DHS P&PM	Subject ACCESS PROCEDURES LANGUAGE, FACILITIES AND EMPLOYMENT ACCESS TO SUPPORT HUMAN SERVICES	Number 4.10.4	Page 3 of 4
		Issue/Revision Date OCT 1 2014

DHS' Self-Evaluation Plan (2014-2016) delineates procedures and processes for facilities assessment, including some program access options involving people with disabilities, making reasonable program modifications, and contracting with external organizations, as well as communication access, including Communications and Emergency Warning Systems as related to provisions for persons with disabilities.

7.3 EMPLOYMENT ACCESS

Practice

The DHS provides equal opportunity in all terms and conditions of employment and services. The intent of these procedures is to prevent discrimination and promote full realization of employment for all individuals.

Scope

Employment access procedures apply to, and must be an integral part of, every aspect of human resource practice in the employment, development, advancement, and treatment of employees and applicants for employment at DHS and its contractors.

Procedures

Related employment procedures and processes are delineated in DHS' Affirmative Action Plan (2013-2015) and include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Responsibilities and Roles
- (2) Guidance and Administrative Guidelines
- (3) Resolution of Complaints
- (4) Workforce Description (2013)
- (5) Identification of Areas Needing Attention
- (6) Objectives, Action Steps and Overall Goals
- (7) Auditing and Reporting
- (8) Exclusions

2.3 DEFINITIONS

Access: Reasonable, meaningful access to employment, facilities, website communication, and services at DHS.

Affirmative Action Plan: A voluntary plan and effort to prevent under-representation of protected groups (groups protected by Federal and State laws), and to provide reasonable, meaningful, access in the DHS workforce and services.

Auxiliary Aids and Services: Equipment, materials and services that are used to provide effective communication for people who have visual, hearing, speech, cognitive or other physical or mental disabilities.

Bilingual/Multilingual: Any individual who has demonstrated proficiency in both spoken English and at least one other language, and who can interpret accurately, impartially, and effectively to and from such language and English using any specialized terminology necessary for effective communication.

Complaint: An informal or formal (written) claim of discrimination which indicates that a person or group of persons were treated differently, or adversely impacted by action(s) or inaction(s) of the DHS, based on one or more memberships in protected groups (protected by Federal and State laws).

Complainant: Any person who alleges discrimination in employment and/or provision of DHS services and/or benefits.

Department or DHS: The Hawaii Department of Human Services, including its administratively attached agencies and commissions.

Director: Director of the Hawaii Department of Human Services.

Discrimination: Any action(s) or lack of action(s) by the DHS, which results in disparate treatment or has an adverse impact on a person or groups of persons, on the basis of one or more memberships in protected groups (groups protected by Federal and State laws).

DHS P&PM	Subject APPENDIX A REFERENCES, ACRONYMS AND DEFINITIONS ACCESS POLICY AND PROCEDURES LANGUAGE, FACILITIES AND EMPLOYMENT ACCESS TO SUPPORT HUMAN SERVICES	Number 4.10.4	Page 3 of 5
		Issue/Revision Date 001 1 2014

External Enforcement Agencies: Government agencies that enforce statutes prohibiting discrimination, and which are responsible for receiving, investigating and adjudicating discrimination complaints. Federal external enforcement agencies include, but are not limited to, the U. S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, U. S. Department of Justice, U. S. Department of Labor, U. S. Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, U. S. Department of Health and Human Services, U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, U. S. Department of Education, U. S. Department of Agriculture, and Social Security Administration. State external enforcement agencies or supporting offices include the Hawaii Civil Rights Commission and the Office of Language Access (OLA) at the Department of Health.

Facility: Any building or space where DHS programs, services, activities, employment or other functions occur (State owned or leased).

Factors Protected by Law: Characteristics of a person or group of persons, which are protected under civil rights and other laws as added or amended by Federal enforcing agencies or State supporting agencies periodically.

Frequently Encountered Language: Language spoken by a significant number or percentage of the population eligible to be served, employed by, or directly affected by DHS programs, services, activities and functions.

Gender Identity or Expression: Includes a person's actual or perceived gender, as well as a person's gender identity, gender-related self-image, gender-related appearance, or gender-related expression, regardless of whether that gender identity, gender-related self-image, gender-related appearance, or gender-related expression is different from that traditionally associated with the person's gender at birth.

Genetic Information: Includes information about an individual's genetic tests and the genetic tests of an individual's family members, as well as information about any disease, disorder, or condition of an individual's family members (i.e., an individual's family medical history). Family medical history is included in the definition of genetic information because it is often used to determine whether someone has an increased risk of getting a disease, disorder, or condition in the future.

Interpreter: A bilingual or multilingual individual who understands interpreter ethics and client confidentiality needs. A person who has rudimentary familiarity with a language other than English shall not be considered an interpreter. Generally, an interpreter is trained in interpretation and has proficient knowledge and skills in English and at least one other language and who uses those skills and training to make possible communication in one language or orally converting what is said to another language while retaining the same meaning.

DHS P&PM	Subject APPENDIX A REFERENCES, ACRONYMS AND DEFINITIONS ACCESS POLICY AND PROCEDURES LANGUAGE, FACILITIES AND EMPLOYMENT ACCESS TO SUPPORT HUMAN SERVICES	Number 4.10.4	Page 4 of 5
		Issue/Revision Date OCT 1 2014

Interpretation: The oral rendition of a spoken message from one language to another; preserving the intent and meaning of the original message.

Language Access Plan: DHS' state-approved Language Access Plan required by Hawaii Revised Statutes, as amended.

Limited English Proficient (LEP) Person: Any individual who does not speak English as his or her primary language and who has a limited ability to read, write, speak or understand English in a manner that permits him or her to communicate effectively with DHS and have meaningful access to and an equal opportunity to participate fully in services, activities, programs, employment, or other benefits administered by the DHS.

Organizational Units: All administratively attached agencies and commissions, staff offices and divisional segments that comprise the DHS.

Participant: Any person who has applied for and is receiving benefits or services.

Protected Group: An individual identified in a group that is protected by Federal and State laws, as amended or added periodically.

Protected Group Discrimination or Harassment: Means any unwelcome behavior based on a person's protected group which is sufficiently severe or pervasive and has the purpose or effect of either unreasonably interfering with the person's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

Person with a Disability: An individual who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the person's major life activities, has a record of such impairment, or is regarded as having such an impairment.

Primary Language: The language that an LEP individual identifies as the language that he or she uses to communicate effectively, and is the language which the individual has indicated the individual would prefer to use to communicate with the DHS.

Public Contact Positions: DHS positions that require public contact daily or weekly.

Respondent(s): Any person or group of persons alleged to be responsible for discrimination.

Self-Evaluation: A voluntary plan and effort to assess programs, services, activities, facilities and employment at the DHS.

Service Applicant/Recipient: Any person, or group of persons, agency, organization, institution, political subdivision, that delivers a program, service, activity with Federal or State financial assistance through contractual, licensing or other arrangements with the DHS.

Sight Translation: Occurs when an interpreter reads written text and orally converts what is written to another language while retaining the same meaning.

Sub-Recipient: Any entity that expends Federal or State assistance received as a pass-through from the DHS to carry out a program in which the sub-recipient provides services, to and has contact with, applicants and participants in the same manner as DHS if DHS were to administer the program directly. This does not include an individual applicant or participant who is a beneficiary of a program. For example, Medicaid payments to a contractor or provider for providing patient care services to Medicaid eligible individuals are not considered Federal awards expended unless the State requires the funds to be treated as Federal awards expended because reimbursement is on a cost-reimbursement basis (OMB Circular A-133 - Guidance on distinguishing between a sub-recipient and a vendor is provided in .210).

Translate: Translate means to convert written materials from one language into an equivalent written document in another language while maintaining the same coherence and meaning. Translation means an activity comprising the interpretation of the meaning of a document in one language and the production, in another language of a new, equivalent document.

Vital Documents: Include, and are not limited to: applications, consent forms, complaint forms, letters or notices pertaining to eligibility for benefits, letters or notices pertaining to the reduction, denial or termination of services or benefits that require a response, written tests that test competency for a particular license, job or skill, documents that must be provided by law, and notices regarding the availability of free language assistance services.
