How to Participate in Our Meetings

We want to make sure everyone can participate in our meetings. Here's how you can share your thoughts with us, and request any support you may need.

Need Help to Participate? (Accessibility)

If you have a disability or have accessibility needs and would like support to participate (like a sign language interpreter, captioning, or meeting materials in alternative formats such as Braille), please contact us as soon as you can. Requests received less than 3 business days before the meeting will be accommodated to the extent feasible.

Phone: (808) 585-7452

Email: info@HawaiiSILC.org

How to Share Your Comments (Public Testimony)

We welcome your thoughts! You can share them by speaking at the meeting or by sending them in writing. To make sure council members can read your comments before the meeting, please try to send them at least 24 hours ahead of time. Comments sent later will still be accepted and shared as soon as possible.
