§17-1426-1 Definitions. For the purpose of this chapter:

"ACTION" means the federal agency authorized to provide opportunities for individuals to serve the communities through volunteer programs administered by the agency.

"Care plan" means a written plan integrating the senior companion into a comprehensive program covering the health and social service needs of a client.

"Client" means a frail elderly person who is mentally, emotionally, or physically impaired, or who is suffering sudden illness, injury, or trauma, and is determined by the volunteer station or senior companion program staff as needing the service of a senior companion.

"Grantee" means the agency which has been awarded a grant by ACTION to operate a senior companion program in a specified locale and for a specified budget period.

"Memorandum of understanding" means an agreement prepared by the grantee and signed by the administrator of the grantee agency and the volunteer station which identifies program requirements, working relationships, and mutual responsibilities.

"Senior companion program" means a volunteer program which provides low-income persons aged sixty or older part-time opportunities with stipends to give person-to-person supportive services and companionship to clients to assist them to live as independently as possible in the clients' own homes.

"Stipend" is an hourly payment to senior companions to enable them to serve without cost to themselves. The stipend is non-taxable and not considered as income.

"Volunteer station" means a public or private non-profit social service or health care agency or organization qualified or licensed to provide services for clients that has entered into a memorandum of understanding with the grantee. [Eff JUN 29 1992]

 (Imp: 45 C.F.R. §1207.3-3)

§17-1426-8 Authorization for service. The senior companion program and its services shall be authorized for adults meeting eligibility criteria specified in sections 17-1426-2 and 17-1426-3 and shall be subject to availability of funds. [Eff JUN 29 1992] (Auth: HRS §346-56) (Imp: HRS §346-56)

§17-1426-9 Termination of services. (a) A senior companion's service to clients shall be terminated when:

- (1) Any abuse occurs in the relationship between the senior companion and the client;
- (2) The relationship is no longer meaningful or satisfying to the senior companion or client;
- (3) The client develops acute functional or organic difficulties;
- (4) The client demonstrates a diminishing need for individual attention; or
- (5) The senior companion leaves the program or the client leaves the volunteer station program.

(b) A senior companion shall be terminated from service when:

- (1) The senior companion no longer wants to serve;
- (2) The senior companion's personal physician determines that the senior companion's health condition would interfere with the performance as a senior companion;
- (3) The senior companion's cash income level, excluding the stipend, increases over twenty percent above the applicable income level as specified in section 17-1426-2;
- (4) The senior companion has frequent and unexcused absences;

- (5) The senior companion fails to cooperate with volunteer station and program staff, disregarding instructions or directions;
- (6) The senior companion fails to comply with house rules of the volunteer station; or
- (7) The senior companion violates prohibitions imposed by the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, (42 U.S.C. §4951-5085), and ACTION guidelines relative to political activities and church-related organizations or activities. [Eff JUN 29 1992] (Auth: HRS §346-56) (Imp: 45 C.F.R. §1207.4-3)

§17-1426-10 Appeal process. An appeal by the senior companion shall be instituted in writing to the director of the department within sixty days from the date of the termination letter. When no written appeal is received within the specified time period, the termination shall be final and binding.

- (1) The department shall acknowledge receipt of the appeal within fifteen days from the date of receipt of the written appeal.
- (2) The director of the department shall review and consider the facts for the termination of the senior companion from the program and shall make a final administrative decision within ninety days from the date of receipt of the written appeal.
