

Tell Your Story About Your Dad!

(The good, the bad, & everything in between)

Essay Contest

The 1st Annual Hawaii State Commission on Fatherhood Essay Contest challenges you to draw on your own experience to create essays that explore your relationship with your dad.

We invite you to tell us about your dad – your biological dad, your step-dad, your adoptive dad, or your non-related dad figure. We want to hear about both positive and negative experiences with your dad (to reflect the reality that parent/child relationships are not always smooth sailing!)

Be thoughtful, inspiring, & interesting!

GO TO <http://humanservices.hawaii.gov/fatherhood/>
FOR COMPLETE RULES

Eligibility

High school students (public, private, charter, or home-schooled)

Deadline:

February 14, 2016

Awards

1st place: $150

2nd place: $100

3rd place: $50

honorable mentions:

4 at $25 each

Remember!

You will be judged based on authentic thoughts and feelings, regardless of whether these are positive or negative.

Sponsored By Hawaii State Department of Human Services and The Hawaii State Commission on Fatherhood.