- (1) If a person claims to be exempt by reason of self-employment, verification of the amount of income received from self-employment shall be sufficient to establish the exemption, provided the amount of income appears to be consistent with a conclusion of full-time (thirty hours per week) employment; and
- (2) If the reported income is not sufficient to establish an exemption, and the number of hours worked a week is questionable, the person shall cooperate with the department in establishing that the volume of work claimed justifies a determination that the self-employment enterprise is a full-time job for the purposes of this exemption. The household shall cooperate in providing adequate documentation to substantiate the claim. [Eff 1/17/08] (Auth: HRS §346-14) (Imp: 7 C.F.R. §273.7(b)(1))

- (2) If the change is reported in person by a household member other than the member required to register, the person reporting the change may complete the form at the time the change is being reported or deliver the form to the member required to register. The person shall inform the member required to register that the form shall be returned to the department within ten calendar days from the date the form was given to the person.
- (3) If the change is reported by phone or through the mail, the department shall provide the household member with a work registration form or the department may complete the work registration form with information provided by the household. The household member shall be responsible for returning the form to the department within ten calendar days from the date the department mailed the form.
- (4) If the household fails to return the form, the department shall issue a notice of adverse action stating that the household is being terminated but that the household can avoid termination by returning the form.

(c) Persons subject to simplified reporting requirements as specified in section 17-650-12, who lose their exemption due to a change in circumstance that is not required to be reported, shall register for employment at the household's next recertification. (d) Each registration shall be documented in a household's case file. At a minimum, the name of the household member and the date of registration shall be recorded. [Eff 1/17/08] (Auth: HRS §346-14) (Imp: 7 C.F.R. §273.7(c))

§17-684.1-19 Failure to comply with work requirements. (a) A household member who refuses or fails without good cause to comply with the requirements of this chapter, shall be ineligible to participate in the food stamp program.

(b) For applicant households, the individual determined ineligible shall be denied food stamp eligibility and shall be disqualified as follows:

 - (A) The date the individual complies with the work requirement; or
 - (B) Thirty days from the date of application.
- (2) For the second violation, the individual shall be ineligible until the later of:
 - (A) The date the individual complies with the work requirement; or

(c) For participating households, the individual determined ineligible shall be disqualified as follows:

- (1) For the first violation, the individual shall be ineligible until the later of:
 - (A) The date the individual complies with the work requirement; or
 - (B) One month.

- (2) For the second violation, the individual shall be ineligible until the later of:
 - (A) The date the individual complies with the work requirement; or
 - (B) Three months.
- (3) For the third or subsequent violation, the individual shall be ineligible until the later of:
 - (A) The date the individual complies with the work requirement; or
 - (B) Six months.

The disqualification period shall begin with the first month following the expiration of the adverse notice period, unless a fair hearing is requested.

(d) If the member who failed to comply joins another household, the individual shall continue to be ineligible in the new household for the remainder of their disqualification period as specified in subsections (b) or (c).

(e) The income and resources of a disqualified individual shall be handled in accordance with section 17-663-82.

- (2) The proposed period of disqualification;
- (3) That the individual may reapply at the end of the disqualification period; and

§17-684.1-20 Failure to comply with a comparable work requirement under Title IV of the Social Security Act or unemployment compensation. (a) A household containing a member who was exempt from the work registration requirement in accordance with sections 17-684.1-10 and 17-684.1-14 because the individual was registered for work in any program under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. §§630-644, including the First-to-Work program (FTW), or unemployment compensation and who fails to comply with the Title IV or unemployment compensation requirement comparable to a food stamp work registration or employment and training requirement shall be treated as though the member failed to comply with the corresponding food stamp requirements.

(b) If the department learns that a household member has refused or failed without good cause to comply with the Title IV or unemployment compensation requirement, the department shall determine whether the requirement was comparable to the food stamp work requirement.

(c) If the household reports the loss or denial of AFDC or unemployment compensation, or if the department otherwise learns of the loss or denial, the department shall determine whether the loss or denial was caused by a determination by the administering agency that a household member refused or failed without good cause to comply with the work requirement and, if so, whether the requirement was comparable to the food stamp work registration or job search requirement. The Title IV or unemployment compensation requirement shall not be considered comparable if it places responsibilities on the household which exceed those imposed by the food stamp work requirements.

(d) If the department determines that the Title IV or unemployment compensation requirement is comparable to the food stamp work requirement, the individual shall be disqualified as follows:

- (1) The department shall provide the household with a notice of adverse action within ten days after learning of the household

member's noncompliance with the unemployment compensation or Title IV requirement;

- (2) The notice shall comply with the requirements of chapter 17-649; and
- (3) The noncomplying member shall not be disqualified from participation if the member meets one of the work registration exemptions provided in sections 17-684.1-7 to 17-684.1-16, other than the exemptions for recipients of unemployment compensation as specified in section 17-684.1-10 or individuals subject to work requirements under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. §§630-644, as specified in section 17-684.1-14.

(e) A household member who fails to comply with a comparable Title IV or unemployment compensation requirement shall lose their exemption under sections 17-684.1-10 and 17-684.1-14, and shall meet the work requirements as specified in section 17-684.1-6. [Eff 1/17/08] (Auth: HRS §346-14) (Imp: 7 C.F.R. §273.7(f) (7); 42 U.S.C. §1305)

§17-684.1-21 Determining good cause. (a) The department shall determine whether good cause exists when a work registrant fails or refuses to comply with a food stamp work requirement in this subchapter.

(b) In determining whether or not good cause exists, the department shall consider the facts and circumstances, including information submitted by the household member involved and the household member's employer.

(c) Good cause shall include circumstances beyond the household member's control, including but not limited to:

- (1) Illness of the household member involved;
- (2) Illness of another household member requiring the presence of the member;
- (3) A household emergency, e.g., a death in the family;

§17-684.1-22 Ending disqualification. (a) After the applicable disqualification period for noncompliance with food stamp program work requirements has ended, participation may resume if the disqualified individual reapplies and is determined to be in compliance with work requirements.

(b) A disqualified individual may resume participation during the disqualification period if the individual becomes exempt from the work registration requirements during that period, and is otherwise eligible. [Eff 1/17/08] (Auth: HRS §346-14) (Imp: 7 C.F.R. §273.7(g))

 - (A) The reduction in work effort provision shall only apply if the individual was employed thirty hours or more per week before the reduction; and
 - (B) The minimum wage equivalency used to determine gainful employment, when employment hours are less than thirty hours per week, shall not apply when determining a reduction in work effort.

(b) Terminating a self-employment enterprise or resigning from a job at the demand of the employer shall not be considered a voluntary quit for purposes of subsection (a).

(c) An employee of the Federal government, or of a state or local government, who participates in a strike against the government and is dismissed from his or her job because of participation in the strike, shall be considered to have voluntarily quit his or her job without good cause.

(d) If an individual quits a job, but subsequently secures new employment at comparable wages or hours and is then laid off or loses the new job through no fault of the individual, the earlier quit will not form the basis of a disqualification.

(f) A household member determined to have quit a job or reduced work effort without good cause shall be ineligible to participate in the food stamp program and shall be disqualified as specified in sections 17-684.1-50 and 17-684.1-51. [Eff 1/17/08] (Auth: HRS §346-14) (Imp: 7 C.F.R. §273.7(j))

A person who is exempt from the work registration requirements in sections 17-684.1-7 to 17-684.1-16 at the time of the voluntary quit or reduced work effort, shall be exempt from the voluntary quit and reduced work effort provisions specified in this subchapter, with the exception of those exempted by sections 17-684.1- 10 and 17-684.1-14. - (3) Discrimination by an employer based on age, race, sex, color, handicap, religious beliefs, national origin, or political beliefs;
- (4) Work demands or conditions that render continued employment unreasonable, such as working without being paid on schedule;

- (5) Acceptance by any other household member of employment or enrollment at least half-time in any recognized school, training program or institution of higher education in another county or similar political subdivision which requires the household to move and thereby requires the household member to leave employment;
- (6) Resignation by a person under the age of sixty that is recognized by the employer as retirement;
- (7) Acceptance of a bona fide offer of employment of more than thirty hours a week, or in which the weekly earnings are equivalent to the Federal minimum wage multiplied by thirty hours that, because of circumstances beyond the control of the primary wage earner, subsequently either does not materialize or results in employment of less than thirty hours a week, or weekly earnings of less than the Federal minimum wage multiplied by thirty hours;
- (8) Leaving a job in connection with patterns of employment in which workers frequently move from one employer to another such as migrant farm labor or construction work;
- (9) When the job contract period ends and the individual or the employer chooses not to renew the contract; and

Employment shall be considered suitable unless:

- (1) The wage offered is less than the highest of:
 - (A) The applicable federal minimum wage;
 - (B) The applicable state minimum wage;

- (C) Eighty per cent of the federal minimum wage, if neither the federal nor the state minimum wage is applicable;
- (2) The employment offered is on a piece-rate basis and the average hourly yield the employee may reasonably be expected to earn is less than the applicable hourly wage specified above;
- (3) As a condition of employment or continuing employment, the employee is required to join, resign from, or refrain from joining any legitimate labor organization;
- (4) The work offered is at a site subject to a strike or a lockout at the time of the offer unless the strike has been enjoined under section 208 of the Labor-Management Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. §178, or an injunction has been issued under section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, 45 U.S.C. §160;

- the distance to the place of employment prohibits walking, and both public and private transportation are unavailable to use in getting to the job site; or

(c) The household shall have primary responsibility for providing verification of questionable information.

(d) The department shall offer assistance to obtain needed verification if it is difficult or impossible for the household to obtain documentary evidence in a timely manner.

(e) Whenever documentary evidence cannot be obtained, the department shall substitute a collateral contact. The department shall be responsible for obtaining verification from acceptable collateral contacts provided by the household.

(f) If the household and department are unable to obtain requested verification from an acceptable source because the quit resulted from alleged discrimination or unreasonable demands by an employer, or because the employer cannot be located, the household shall not be denied access to the program.
