AGENDA ITEM	O Temporary shelter for one night to a few weeks that the police can take the youth if parents cannot be reached or an option other than contacting CPS.  O No target date but by the end of the year. O Provides options for youth.  (23:38)  Shannessy Ahu: What is the name for shelter? O Shelter for Girls and Boys: Hale Pono. We are thinking of adding "Safe House". A building was purchased in Wailuku and will be renovated for different offices and agencies. It will be a community collaboration.  (24:42)  Melinda Montgomery: O Discussion on Truancy Court program on Kauai: O We are in our 3 rd year. The first year we piloted the high school and middle in Waimea with 2 programs (56 youth referred to us) and the second year we added 2 more by expanding to Kapaa High School and Middle school, and the Elementary school.  Kapaa school district has 900 kids not including the elementary school.  Truancy Court program will be island wide by next year (2020) to	- include Hanalei/ Princeville.  Drastically reduce truancy on the island of Kauai.  We have made some system changes with DOE and how they look at the truancy regarding attendance in the school system.  Working with Kauai police department in the schools re: attendance.  Collaboration efforts by Family Court Judge Acoba, DOE, Liliuokalani Trust (LT), and Hale Kipa.  We meet monthly at each school.  70% are the youth that were referred to the program are Native Hawaiian. Waimea is predominately Hawaiian/part-Hawaiian.

	Major I Dodro
	Major J. Pedro  It depends if the homeless youth are in school. Homelessness is more of a social issue rather than a police issue. Our piece is with the enforcement whereas the DOE has more of an impact with homeless youth.
