- Advocate for Hawaii's young adults to vote in the 2020 Presidential, Hawaii Mayoral, and all elections.
- Research/Review of the history of youth advisory groups in Hawaii and Youth Commissions in the United States and in other countries. Connect with other current and active Youth Commissions, Youth Power, and Youth Vote programs both locally and nationwide.

- Continue to increase collaborations with potential community partners to support, engage, and connect youth voices statewide.
- To address the Aloha Spirit statute, section 5-7.5, HRS, and set a foundation of aloha for HiYC, training with Pono Shim on The Aloha Response was scheduled for July 10, 2020.

Long-term:

- Development of HiYC Commissioners as future young leaders.
- Empowerment of the HiYC Commissioners towards leading the HiYC and turning their own goals and youth voice into realities.
- Establish the HiYC as the "Youth Voice HUB" for the State of Hawaii. This will include youth engagement and empowerment, research and innovation, education and assistance for youth to navigate the legislative process, and development of connections across all communities and counties.
- Each youth commissioner was selected, in part, because of their efforts and drive to address the concerns and needs of the youth of Hawaii. The group identified three priority areas including Economy, Environment, and Health to track and advocate for over the next year.
- Integrate the 'Ohana Nui multigenerational framework into HiYC efforts by connecting youth with kupuna to share their wisdom and aloha for a better Hawaii.

II. Recommendations

HiYC requests continuing support for the HiYC as it begins its work.

Due to the HiYC not yet being fully-formed in state fiscal years 2019 and 2020, there are no specific recommendations addressing the concerns and needs of youth in Hawaii with this initial report.
