Her day consists of overseeing the operations of juvenile probation for the 3rd circuit, assisting with court operations, supervising 19 staff members, and providing training and assistance as needed. • Why have you decided to serve on the JJSAC/ committee? She was asked to join JJSAC by Marsha Yamada who was then the Administrator for 2nd circuit JCSB. Marsha was moving on to Deputy Chief Court Administrator and asked me to take over her seat. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your interest in Juvenile Justice and what expertise you bring to the JJSAC/ committee? Randi majored in Administration of Justice at Penn State and also enjoyed teaching. She had an opportunity

	during her junior year to volunteer at a camp for pre-delinquent kids. During that experience, she learned a lot about herself, about how to interact and help troubled youth and how rewarding it was to see kids be successful. She interned during her senior year at Berks County Juvenile Probation and was mentored by a great probation officer who taught her and inspired her to pursue juvenile probation as a career. She was hired after graduating and worked for 5 years in Berks County and then moved to Boston, where she worked for 3 years in Dedham Court Juvenile Probation before moving to Hawaii in 1990. Randi has been with 3rd circuit JCSB for 30 years and still enjoys her job. Her expertise would be her years of experience with probation, understanding the nuances of the system and working in the best interest of her clients. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Something fun that member do not know about you (family, talents, etc.)? She has been married for 30 years, her husband, Gary, is an SBBH at Hilo High and together they have one daughter, Chelsea, who lives and works on Oahu. Randi loves to cook and has 2 cats, John Snow and Winter, who provides amusement and joy.

Then it goes through the same process. • Conference period to figure out the exact version that will be sent to the Governor

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ To find agreement, leadership appoints members to Conference Committees for each bill that has passed the House and Senate in different versions.○ If the House has passed one version of the bill, and the Senate has passed another, the Conference Committees appointed by House and Senate leadership for that particular bill will iron out the differences and try to come to an agreement on the final version of the bill to be presented to their chambers. Bills can still die here. Conference committees may fail to convene or may not come to an agreement. The fate of your bill may be tied to the fate of other bills being negotiated by other conference committees. While the meetings are open to the public, no testimony is received. Instead, advocates contact the conference members and anyone else they think may have some influence over the final outcome and focus on which particulars they want to see in the final bill. The conferees need to come to agreement by the Final Decking deadline● After it has made it through all the committees, it comes back to the floor for the 3rd Reading. The members of the House or Senate are given 48 hours' notice of all bills coming up for 3rd reading. This ensures that they have had time to review them before this critical vote● Finally, if the bill emerges from conference committee with a conference draft (CD1), that new version of the bill has to be voted on by both the House and the Senate.

	The Final Reading must take place by the end of session (adjournment sine die) and members must be given 48 hours' notice before the vote. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Governor has a say in whether the bill becomes law. If it does get signed (or not vetoed by a certain date), the bill becomes an act of law that governs the state of Hawaii. • If the bill is vetoed, there is still an opportunity for it to become law – the House and Senate can reconvene in special session, and if both chambers override the veto with a 2/3 vote, the bill is enacted
